Life Study of Matthew – Study guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 11 of the Life-study of Matthew, entitled The King's Anointing (4) III. Tested. This life-study covers Matt. 4:1-11, which addresses the testing of the newly appointed King.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

If we consider our experience, we shall see that all temptations are included in these three aspects: the temptation in the matter of our living, the temptation of religious miracles, and the temptation in the realm of worldly glory. All day long we are tempted in the aspects of our living, religion, and worldly position. But the Lord Jesus overcame every aspect of the enemy's temptation. He could say, "My living is secondary. I don't care for religious power. And worldly glory has nothing to do with Me. I know only God's word and God Himself. I care only to serve God." Therefore, as the One who passed the test, the Lord Jesus was qualified to be the King of the kingdom of the heavens.

(Witness Lee, Life-study of Matthews, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 11).

Key Verses for pray-reading: Matt. 4:4,10

Questions:

1. What is the first test by the Devil? What is the Lord's reply and how can it be applied to our experience?
2. What is the second test by the Devil? What is the significance of the test and how should our response be in being tested in such a way?
3. What does the third test involve? How does ambition for worldly glory relate to worship of idols?
