 - From the Church in London
 - Burdens for young people: The recent time with the parents and saints burdened for raising up the next generation reminded us all of the particular need to shepherd our teenagers out of the abnormality of the pandemic and back into the fellowship and enjoyment of the Lord in the church life. (a) May all of the saints be burdened, and find a way, to spend more time with the teenagers in the church life. (b) May the coordination in the church be uplifted and strengthened, in order to deliver the one-on-one shepherding care to all of our young people, and their friends.
 - From the churches in Israel
 - Although we have been inviting many of the Recovery Version recipients to the Bible studies of the church in Netanya, we have noticed that not many are responding when we invite them to group study times. However, several have been responding to personal Bible studies over the phone or in person. Please pray for the Lord to continue to lead us in this area that these new ones could be fully brought into the green pasture.
 - Reports from Turkey
 - Brother D was baptized on Oct. 10th. He felt released after being baptized. Pray that the Lord may continue working in Brother D's heart, to enlighten his spirit, to illuminate his mind, so that he can receive life supply from God's word.
 - Most of the local saints have been vaccinated, and recently we have started to visit saints' homes and meet together. May the Lord use these contacts to strengthen the communication and building among the saints and open more doors to the gospel. This weekend we will visit some saints and gospel friends in Izmir, please pray for this trip.
 - We plan to have a trip in November to meet Rhema readers in Adana in southeastern Turkey.
 - Please continue to pray for the results of sister Elaine's Turkish citizenship application.
 - Please pray for more saints to come to Turkey for coordination and propagation.
